His Excellency the Governor and the honorable Council then withdrew.

The Senate was called to order by Greenleaf Cummings, Clerk of the Senate last year.

The Clerk stated that the first business properly before the Senate would be the selection of a temporary presiding officer.

On motion of the Senator from No. 5, Mr. Tufts,

The Honorable Senator from No. 3, Mr. Foster, was chosen President pro tempore of the Senate.

Mr. Foster assumed the chair.

The Senate proceeded to the choice of President, by ballot.

And there was no choice.

The Senators immediately proceeded to a second ballot.

The President pro tem announced the state of the second ballot to be as follows, viz. :

Whole number of votes cast,	10
Necessary for a choice,	6
Hon. John Burnham,	1
" William A. Burns,	1
" Eli Wentworth,	1
" Herman Foster,	7

and Hon. Herman Foster, having a majority of all the votes cast, was declared to be elected President of the Senate.

Mr. Foster addressed the Senate as follows :

Senators—I accept the office to which you have elected me, and give you my unfeigned thanks for the honor you have conferred upon me.

We meet under circumstances differing in some important respects from those which have attended the meeting of the Senate or the Legislature of this State since the establishment of our State or National Government. Events have been transpiring for many months, and are still daily happening, more momentous than have happened in any other period of our history.

A civil war is upon us, commenced by the South against the Union and the Government of our common country, which had been long meditated by some of the principal traitors, and for which there had been much secret preparation before hostilities were openly commenced.

Since that commencement there has been a unanimity of sentiment and purpose, without respect to previous party differences, throughout all the free States, probably more perfect than ever existed in the prosecution of any war in any country, to maintain the general Government of the country at any cost or sacrifice—a determination that will prove irresistible, that the Constitution and the laws shall be maintained and enforced throughout all the States of the Union, and that the stars and stripes shall wave in triumph in every State.

We have seen with what alacrity volunteers in our own and every other loyal State have entered the service of our country. It will be the pleasure of all of us, of all the members of the Legislature, to see that ample provision is made for them. These things will impose some new duties upon the present Legislature—duties which will without doubt be performed here with the same promptitude and liberality that they have been in other States.

It seems to be understood that but little legislation is at present required, and expected that the session will be a short one. It is to be hoped that whatever ought to be done will be done as rapidly as can be, and done well.

Senators—I again thank you for the favor with which you have been pleased to distinguish me. I have had very little experience as a presiding officer, but will endeavor to discharge the duties to the utmost of my ability, faithfully and impartially, feeling quite sure that I shall have your friendly forbearance and aid, and that you will kindly excuse the errors I may commit.

On motion of the Senator from No. 1, Mr. Hackett, the Senate proceeded to the choice of Clerk by ballot.

On the first balloting the President announced the state of the vote to be as follows :

The whole number of votes cast is,	12
Necessary for a choice,	7
Pierce L. Wiggin has	2
William A. Preston has	10

—and WILLIAM A. PRESTON, having a majority of all the votes cast, was accordingly declared elected Clerk.

William A. Preston thereupon appeared, signified his acceptance of the office to which he had been elected, and was duly sworn to the faithful discharge of the duties thereof.

On motion of the Senator from No. 2, Mr. Patten,

The Senate proceeded to the choice of Assistant Clerk, by ballot.

On the first balloting the President announced the state of the vote to be as follows :

The whole number of votes cast is	10
Necessary for a choice,	6
Charles Henry Bartlett,	10

—and CHARLES HENRY BARTLETT, having all the votes cast, was accordingly declared elected Assistant Clerk.

Charles Henry Bartlett thereupon appeared, signified his acceptance of the office to which he had been elected, and was duly sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties as Assistant Clerk of the Senate.

If the President doubts, or a division is called for, the Senate shall divide. Those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise in their seats, and stand till they be counted, and afterward those in the negative shall rise and stand till they be counted. The following message was received from the House :

Mr. President—

The House of Representatives have indefinitely postponed the bill entitled An act to repeal section 1 of chapter 1667 of the Pamphlet Laws.

They have passed the bill entitled An act relative to Teachers' Institutes, with amendments, in the passage of which they ask the concurrence of the Senate.

The Senate concurred in the adoption of the House amendments.

Mr. Tufts, from the Committee on Claims, reported without amendment the resolution in favor of Charles H. Roberts and others; and, under a suspension of the rules, the resolution was read a third time and passed.

The Senator from No. 12, Mr. Burns, introduced the following resolution, which was read by the clerk :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be presented to the Hon. Herman Foster, for the faithful and impartial manner in which he has discharged the duties of the chair during the present session.

After remarks upon the resolution by Mr. Burns, the clerk stated the question, Shall this resolution be adopted? which was decided unanimously in the affirmative.

The President then addressed the Senate as follows :

Senators : I most sincerely thank you for the renewed expression of your kindness contained in the resolution just passed.

We have been associated here but a short time.

I hope what we have done in that time will prove useful to those who sent us here and to the State.

If it does not, it will not be because you have not assiduously labored to have every thing well done.

I have never seen the business of legislation attended to with more scrupulous care.

You have thoroughly discussed measures without bitterness, and in most cases such measures have been adopted or rejected unanimously.

Whenever in coming years we recur to the hours passed and the duties attended to within these halls the present session, I trust we shall all do so with pleasure.

I have endeavored at all times to perform my duties in presiding over your deliberations in such a manner as to merit your approbation. It seems that in your favorable judgment expressed in the resolution, I have not been entirely unsuccessful. Whatever of success I have had in this respect I attribute to your kind forbearance and aid.

As we are about to separate, probably not all to meet again as members of this body, permit me to express my warmest wishes that each of you may have a safe return to your several families and friends, and meet them in the full enjoyment of health, prosperity and happiness, and that those blessings may ever rest upon you and them.

[Mr. Patten in the chair.]

On motion of Mr. Allen, the resolutions on national affairs were taken from the table.

On motion of Mr. Burns, the resolutions were acted upon separately, and were severally read a third time and passed.

They were as follows :

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of New-Hampshire, in General Court convened, That the contest now existing between the Government and the disloyal people, that have commenced an unjustifiable and treasonable war upon its constitutional authority, should be regarded by all loyal men, not as a sectional war, not an anti-slavery war, not a war of conquest and subjugation, but simply and solely a war for the maintenance of the Government, the suppression of rebellion, and the preservation of the magna charta of our liberty and national unity.

Thursday, July 4, 1861.

Resolved, That the State of New-Hampshire pledges her resources for the integrity of the Union, for the support of the Constitution, and for the enforcement of the laws of the General Government.

Resolved, That the Constitution is the supreme law of the land, and that no State has the right to secede therefrom and dissolve the Union which that Constitution was made to secure.

Resolved, That the duty of the General Government, to suppress all attempts to dissolve the Union, is imperative, and cannot be evaded.

Resolved, That neither the President nor Congress can constitutionally entertain any proposition which has for its object the dismemberment of the government or the dissolution of the Union.

Resolved, That, in the language of Andrew Jackson, "the Federal Union must be preserved."

Resolved, That the Secretary of the State be directed to send copies of these resolutions to the President of the United States, the presiding officer of each House of Congress, the Governors of the several States, and each Senator and Representative of this State in Congress.

Mr. Allen introduced the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be extended to William A. Preston, Clerk, and Charles H. Bartlett, Assistant Clerk, for the faithful and gentlemanly manner in which they have discharged their duties during the present session.

Mr. Wentworth, from the Committee on Finance, reported without amendment the "Resolution authorizing the State Treasurer to borrow sixty thousand dollars;" and, on motion of Mr. Hackett, the rules were suspended, and the resolution was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Cooper introduced the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be presented to Charles H. Roberts, Doorkeeper, for the faithful and acceptable manner in which he has discharged his several duties, and for his courteous and pleasing bearing to each member of the Senate during the present session.

On motion of Mr. Hackett the "Resolution providing for the amendment of the Constitution of the United States," together with the majority and minority reports on said resolution, were taken from the table.

Mr. Chase moved to indefinitely postpone the subject, and the yeas and nays being demanded, were as follows :

Yeas.

Messrs.	Morrill,	Chase,
	Wentworth,	Cooper,
	Adams—5.

Nays.

Messrs.	Hackett,	Tufts,
	Patten,	Allen,
	Foster,	Burns—6.

So the motion to indefinitely postpone did not prevail.

Mr. Wentworth moved to lay the subject on the table.

On this question the yeas and nays being demanded, resulted as follows :

Yeas.

Messrs.	Morrill,	Chase,
	Wentworth,	Cooper,
	Adams—5.

Nays.

Messrs.	Hackett,	Tufts,
	Patten,	Allen,
	Foster,	Burns—6.

So the motion to lay the subject on the table did not prevail.

Mr. Hackett then moved to postpone the subject till the next session of the Legislature. On this question the yeas and nays were demanded by Mr. Burns, and were as follows :

Yeas.

Messrs.	Hackett,	Morrill,
	Patten,	Tufts,
	Foster,	Allen,
	Adams—7.

Thursday, July 4, 1861.

111

Nays.

Messrs.

Wentworth,
Chase,

Cooper,
Burns—4.

So the resolution was postponed to the next session of the Legislature.

Mr. Burns moved to reconsider the vote whereby the "Act in amendment of chapter 1255 of the Pamphlet Laws" was indefinitely postponed.

This motion did not prevail.

Mr. Adams, from the committee to audit the State Treasurer's accounts, submitted the following report :

The undersigned, of the Joint Select Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the State treasurer, report that, having carefully examined the treasurer's accounts for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1861, find the same well vouched and correctly cast.

An error of one hundred dollars occurred in carrying forward an item of the railroad tax ; and we find, also, that there was due the State on the first of June, inst., from sundry railroads, for taxes for 1860, the sum of twenty-two hundred, forty-nine dollars and fifty-nine cents, instead of twelve hundred, forty-nine dollars fifty-nine cents, as reported. This discrepancy was not observed and corrected by the treasurer until his annual report had been submitted. The amount has since been collected and placed to the proper account. Hence the deficiency account is actually eleven hundred dollars less than was officially reported.

CYRUS ADAMS,

Committee on the part of the Senate.

This report was accepted, and was laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Burns.

[The President in the chair.]

Mr. Chase, from the Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the "Act providing for the assessment and collection of a State tax," reported the same, with the following amendment :

Strike out the word "ninety," and insert the word "eighty."

The amendment was adopted, and, on motion of Mr. Hackett, the rules were suspended, and the bill was read a third time and passed.

The following message was received from the House :

Mr. President—

The House of Representatives concur with the Senate in the amendments proposed by them to "An act providing for the assessment and collection of a State tax," "An act remodelling the militia," and the resolutions on national affairs.

Mr. Hackett introduced the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee on Engrossed Bills be requested to employ sufficient force to engross the bill entitled "An act remodelling the Militia" by two o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Burns, agreeably to notice, presented the following protest :

We, the undersigned, hereby avail ourselves of our constitutional privilege of recording upon the journal of the Senate our protest against the passage of the bill entitled "An act to aid in the defence of the country," with some of the reasons which impel us to this ultimate resort of minorities.

By this bill all payments and expenditures made by the Governor and Council, or by their authority, are ratified and confirmed. We are thus required to ratify and confirm expenditures without the means of knowing whether they were just or unjust; without the opportunity of judging of their necessity; without knowing to whom the money has been paid, or if it has been economically or extravagantly expended;—no information upon these points having been furnished to this body. To ratify and confirm these payments and expenditures without investigation, and, consequently, without any knowledge of their propriety, would, in our humble opinion, be a disregard of the interests of those who sent us here—an abandonment of the right of the people to know what has been done with their hard-earned money—a submission to the demands of executive power, for which we could offer no sufficient justification to the people, and which it is our duty to oppose with manly firmness.

The bill further provides that the Governor and Council may, at their discretion, in answer to any call that has been or may be made by the President of the United States, proceed to raise, arm, equip, and maintain, such military force as in his judgment may be necessary for carrying on the present deplorable contest in which we are engaged, appoint all the necessary officers and agents, and prescribe their rank and pay.

This very extraordinary grant of power, scarcely paralleled in the history of antiquity, is at variance with the whole theory of our government; and when considered in connection with the acknowledged fact, that the President is transcending his constitutional power, fills us with deep alarm for the safety and perpetuity of our free institutions and government; and we deem it a duty which we owe to our constituents, to our country, and to ourselves, to pause, reflect, and consider well the consequences likely to result from a policy which, while professing for its object the maintenance of the constitution and laws, is to be carried out in disregard of both.

We have ever been taught to believe that a strict adherence to the constitution, in letter and spirit, is the only way by which our liberties are to be preserved; and we are not willing to put ourselves in the position, before the civilized world, of requiring submission to the laws on the part of others, while we are deliberately disregarding them ourselves. Such a position must necessarily serve to prejudice our cause and weaken the moral force of the government we would preserve.

The bill also provides for drawing from the pockets of the people one million of dollars, and places the same at the absolute disposal of the Governor and Council, without limitation or check.

Such a proceeding has never before been resorted to in New-Hampshire, and we consider it our duty to remonstrate against this unnecessary amount, and the consequent taxation that will result from it. The people have had no opportunity of indicating their wishes in relation to it, and no information has been presented to us, that we may judge either of its propriety or necessity. We are simply asked to place at the disposal of the Executive a million of dollars, to aid in carrying out measures acknowledged to be unauthorized by law, but in lieu thereof the plea, the tyrant's plea, of necessity is urged. No appeal to our passions, under the guise of patriotism, ought to influence our decision on so important a subject. Mature deliberation, calm reason, sober judgment, with a full understanding of all the difficulties to be encountered and all the consequences likely to follow, should guide and direct us all. And in the exercise of our reason and judgment, with a full appreciation of the responsibility resting upon us, we are compelled to express our disapproval of the bill.

We further disapprove of the bill because, from the rejection of the amendments proposed, and the loose and indefinite manner in which the whole bill is drawn, we are led to believe that there may be an intention, by unlawful means should they be found necessary, to secure some ulterior object, not yet distinctly declared. And if that object should be the invasion of any State rights, or an attempt at the consolidation of the powers of the government, then indeed is it time that the people should understand and prepare for it. It is certainly true that some of the public journals of the day have from time to time suggested that the subjugation of the seceded States would be the result of the contest, and more recently have we heard the Secretary of War (who, from his position, may be presumed to know the intentions of the government) declare, in a public manner, that when "this war is ended there will be no more talk of Virginians, Marylanders, Pennsylvanians or Mississippians. Then all will be Americans. Then there will be no fealty but that to the Constitution of the United States. No miserable casuistry about the doctrine of State rights." If, as the foregoing sentiment indicates, State rights are to disappear, and fealty to State constitutions is to be absorbed and consolidated in one government, it should be so understood. We do not believe that the people of this country are yet willing to throw away the blessings consecrated to them by the blood of their fathers, to hazard upon an issue which, as the great leader of the Republican party not long since declared, "has practically ceased to exist;" those free institutions and that government which our forefathers transmitted to us. Our government had its origin in compromise. It has been preserved by compromise. And have we grown so much wiser and better than our fathers that we have no compromise to offer; that we may with impunity disregard their example? Does the parting advice of the illustrious father of our country fall upon deaf ears and stolid hearts? War in our opinion can never successfully settle this unhappy controversy. Conciliation may, as it has in the past, restore harmony and fraternal feeling. War may, and often has resulted in the destruction of both sides. Conciliation and compromise, with a proper regard for the rights of all, ever has been, and would now, in our judgment, be attended with the happiest results.

Such are some of the reasons that, after mature deliberation, and divesting ourselves of all party prejudice, so far as we are able to do, have induced us to enter this, our respectful, earnest protest, upon the journals of the Senate against the passage of the bill; hoping that the Almighty Ruler of the Universe may so direct that our Union and our Government may be restored, and remain to the remotest times, as a monument of the wisdom of those who formed it.

W. A. BURNS,
JOHN BURNHAM.

On motion of Mr. Hackett, it was ordered that the adjournment this morning be till 2 o'clock this afternoon.

On motion of Mr. Patten,

The Senate adjourned.
